

NEWS RELEASE

creighton grad receives SBA awards

august 13, 2003

Pam Watson Korbelt – 303-790-9131 (office), 303-906-4144 (cell)

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

ENGLEWOOD, CO – The U.S. Small Business Administration named Denver-area entrepreneur Pam Watson Korbelt, CEO of SmartGrowth, Inc., as the 2003 Outstanding Advocate for Women in Business for both the state of Colorado and the Rocky Mountain Region. Korbelt is now a finalist for the national award, which will be presented at the National Entrepreneurs Congress in Washington, D.C .on September 18.

Korbelt received an MBA in 1983 and a BA in 1977 from Creighton University.

This award recognizes a person who has worked to advance women in business and related issues. Korbelt has been active in programs to help women gain access to capital and government procurement dollars, and she has worked on several public policy issues including taxation, education and training for small business, and health care for small business.

Korbelt is the immediate past president of the Denver chapter of the National Association of Women Business Owners (NAWBO) and serves on the organization's national membership council as training coordinator. She also helped create an entrepreneurial program for the Mile Hi Girl Scout Council. While a resident of San Diego, she was the co-founder of a San Diego Housing Authority program to help women on welfare start a business.

Her business SmartGrowth, Inc., founded in 1996, trains and coaches owners and managers of rapidly growing companies. SmartGrowth was recognized by NAWBO as the Small Business of the Year in 2000.

END

More information also available at www.smartgrowth.com.

NEWS RELEASE

mnc member receives SBA awards

august 13, 2003

Pam Watson Korbelt – 303-790-9131 (office), 303-906-4144 (cell)

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

ENGLEWOOD, CO – The U.S. Small Business Administration named Denver-area entrepreneur Pam Watson Korbelt, CEO of SmartGrowth, Inc., as the 2003 Outstanding Advocate for Women in Business for both the state of Colorado and the Rocky Mountain Region. Korbelt is now a finalist for the national award, which will be presented at the National Entrepreneurs Congress in Washington, D.C .on September 18.

Korbelt and her company SmartGrowth, Inc. are members of the Metro North Chamber of Commerce.

This award recognizes a person who has worked to advance women in business and related issues. Korbelt has been active in programs to help women gain access to capital and government procurement dollars, and she has worked on several public policy issues including taxation, education and training for small business, and health care for small business.

Korbelt is the immediate past president of the Denver chapter of the National Association of Women Business Owners (NAWBO) and serves on the organization's national membership council as training coordinator. She also helped create an entrepreneurial program for the Mile Hi Girl Scout Council. While a resident of San Diego, she was the co-founder of a San Diego Housing Authority program to help women on welfare start a business.

Her business SmartGrowth, Inc., founded in 1996, trains and coaches owners and managers of rapidly growing companies. SmartGrowth was recognized by NAWBO as the Small Business of the Year in 2000.

END

More information also available at www.smartgrowth.com.

NEWS RELEASE

Dmcc member receives SBA awards

august 13, 2003

Pam Watson Korbelt – 303-790-9131 (office), 303-906-4144 (cell)

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

ENGLEWOOD, CO – The U.S. Small Business Administration named Denver-area entrepreneur Pam Watson Korbelt, CEO of SmartGrowth, Inc., as the 2003 Outstanding Advocate for Women in Business for both the state of Colorado and the Rocky Mountain Region. Korbelt is now a finalist for the national award, which will be presented at the National Entrepreneurs Congress in Washington, D.C .on September 18.

Korbelt and her company SmartGrowth are members of the Denver Metro Chamber of Commerce.

This award recognizes a person who has worked to advance women in business and related issues. Korbelt has been active in programs to help women gain access to capital and government procurement dollars, and she has worked on several public policy issues including taxation, education and training for small business, and health care for small business.

Korbelt is the immediate past president of the Denver chapter of the National Association of Women Business Owners (NAWBO) and serves on the organization's national membership council as training coordinator. She also helped create an entrepreneurial program for the Mile Hi Girl Scout Council. While a resident of San Diego, she was the co-founder of a San Diego Housing Authority program to help women on welfare start a business.

Her business SmartGrowth, Inc., founded in 1996, trains and coaches owners and managers of rapidly growing companies. SmartGrowth was recognized by NAWBO as the Small Business of the Year in 2000.

END

More information also available at www.smartgrowth.com.

NEWS RELEASE

hoover h.s. grad receives SBA awards

august 13, 2003

Pam Watson Korbelt – 303-790-9131 (office), 303-906-4144 (cell)

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

ENGLEWOOD, CO – The U.S. Small Business Administration named Denver-area entrepreneur Pam Watson Korbelt, CEO of SmartGrowth, Inc., as the 2003 Outstanding Advocate for Women in Business for both the state of Colorado and the Rocky Mountain Region. Korbelt is now a finalist for the national award, which will be presented at the National Entrepreneurs Congress in Washington, D.C .on September 18.

Korbelt graduated from Hoover High School in Des Moines in 1973.

This award recognizes a person who has worked to advance women in business and related issues. Korbelt has been active in programs to help women gain access to capital and government procurement dollars, and she has worked on several public policy issues including taxation, education and training for small business, and health care for small business.

Korbelt is the immediate past president of the Denver chapter of the National Association of Women Business Owners (NAWBO) and serves on the organization's national membership council as training coordinator. She also helped create an entrepreneurial program for the Mile Hi Girl Scout Council. While a resident of San Diego, she was the co-founder of a San Diego Housing Authority program to help women on welfare start a business.

Her business SmartGrowth, Inc., founded in 1996, trains and coaches owners and managers of rapidly growing companies. SmartGrowth was recognized by NAWBO as the Small Business of the Year in 2000.

END

More information also available at www.smartgrowth.com.

NEWS RELEASE

Nawbo member receives SBA awards

August 13, 2003

Pam Watson Korbelt – 303-790-9131 (office), 303-906-4144 (cell)

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

ENGLEWOOD, CO – The U.S. Small Business Administration named Denver-area entrepreneur Pam Watson Korbelt, CEO of SmartGrowth, Inc., as the 2003 Outstanding Advocate for Women in Business for both the state of Colorado and the Rocky Mountain Region. Korbelt is now a finalist for the national award, which will be presented at the National Entrepreneurs Congress in Washington, D.C. on September 18.

This award recognizes a person who has worked to advance women in business and related issues. Korbelt has been active in programs to help women gain access to capital and government procurement dollars, and she has worked on several public policy issues including taxation, education and training for small business, and health care for small business.

Korbelt is the immediate past president of the Denver chapter of the National Association of Women Business Owners (NAWBO) and serves on the organization's national membership council as training coordinator. She also helped create an entrepreneurial program for the Mile Hi Girl Scout Council. While a resident of San Diego, she was the co-founder of a San Diego Housing Authority program to help women on welfare start a business.

Her business SmartGrowth, Inc., founded in 1996, trains and coaches owners and managers of rapidly growing companies. SmartGrowth was recognized by NAWBO as the Small Business of the Year in 2000.

END

More information also available at www.smartgrowth.com.

NEWS RELEASE

creighton grad receives SBA awards

august 13, 2003

Pam Watson Korbelt – 303-790-9131 (office), 303-906-4144 (cell)

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

ENGLEWOOD, CO – The U.S. Small Business Administration named Denver-area entrepreneur Pam Watson Korbelt, CEO of SmartGrowth, Inc., as the 2003 Outstanding Advocate for Women in Business for both the state of Colorado and the Rocky Mountain Region. Korbelt is now a finalist for the national award, which will be presented at the National Entrepreneurs Congress in Washington, D.C .on September 18.

Korbelt received an MBA in 1983 and a BA in 1977 from Creighton University.

This award recognizes a person who has worked to advance women in business and related issues. Korbelt has been active in programs to help women gain access to capital and government procurement dollars, and she has worked on several public policy issues including taxation, education and training for small business, and health care for small business.

Korbelt is the immediate past president of the Denver chapter of the National Association of Women Business Owners (NAWBO) and serves on the organization's national membership council as training coordinator. She also helped create an entrepreneurial program for the Mile Hi Girl Scout Council. While a resident of San Diego, she was the co-founder of a San Diego Housing Authority program to help women on welfare start a business.

Her business SmartGrowth, Inc., founded in 1996, trains and coaches owners and managers of rapidly growing companies. SmartGrowth was recognized by NAWBO as the Small Business of the Year in 2000.

END

More information also available at www.smartgrowth.com.